

Director of Children and Youth Ministry Position
Christian Community Presbyterian Church
3120 Belair Dr.
Bowie, MD 20715

Christian Community Presbyterian Church (CCPC) in Bowie, MD, is searching for a Ministry Associate to lead the youth & children's programs and to support the Transitional Pastor. CCPC's Youth program is in transition; more than half of our youth group graduated in 2020. During the Covid-19 pandemic, CCPC has conducted most of our church life online, however we are beginning to provide in-person services.

This position is part time (20 hours/week)
$24k per year

Responsibilities:

- Develop and coordinate youth and children's programs: fun activities, regular meetings, Bible studies, VBS, service and mission opportunities, retreats
- Coordinate faith education (Sunday School) for children and youth to include obtaining volunteers and materials
- Communicate regularly with the youth, parents, volunteers, church staff, and others
- Assist pastor in planning worship as it relates to children and youth.
- Manage fundraising activities and budget for youth programs
- Coordinate youth participation in worship

Looking for

Experience in working with youth and teens to include some experience with youth ministry

- Personal faith, experience and background that is compatible with the Presbyterian Church (USA)
- Strong skills communicating by both traditional and newer technologies to include social media.
- Experience working with a staff member of a faith community.
- Some theological training is preferred.
- A love for God, respect for the church, a desire to grow in faith, and a deep appreciation for children.
- Good organizational and group leadership skills.
- Bachelor's Degree
